DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1, 2, 4-7, 11, 12 and 14-17 are pending.

Response to Arguments

2. In view of the Appeal Brief filed on October 1, 2003, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED. A new rejection is set forth below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

- (1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,
- (2) request reinstatement of the appeal.

If reinstatement of the appeal is requested, such request must be accompanied by a supplemental appeal brief, but no new amendments, affidavits (37 CFR 1.130, 1.131 or 1.132) or other evidence are permitted. See 37 CFR 1.193(b)(2).

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 11, 12 and 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The term "transaction utility" from claim 11, line 8, is directed towards software. The "transaction utility" is mixed with means plus function limitations. As is, no statutory subject matter is claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 1, 2, 4-7, 11, 12 and 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. No support in the specification is provided for the shipping service having both the TID and SRID in its possession and forwarding that to the depository.

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

8. Claim s 11, 12 and 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 11, line 8, the term "transaction utility" is not clear. The term utility may, generally, refer to a program or software designed for a specific function. However, no recitation of a processor or the like to execute the program or software is recited.

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 1, 2, 4-7, 11, 12 and 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Fox, US 5,790,677; Dorak, Jr., US 6,389,403 or Shub, US 6,807,530.

Fox discloses an electronic commerce system where confidentiality is maintained, e.g. Figs. 1-23. Fox does not disclose a transaction utility. To have provided a transaction utility for Fox would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for having done such would have been to have provided common knowledge software to implement the electronic commerce transactions.

Dorak discloses an electronic commerce system where confidentiality is maintained, e.g. Figs. cols. 55-57. Dorak does not disclose a transaction utility. To have provided a transaction utility for Dorak would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for having done such would have been to have provided common knowledge software to implement the electronic commerce transactions.

Shub discloses, e.g. Figs. 1-4, an anonymous payment transaction using a customer number and a transaction private number, and then an order number generated by a merchant for a shipper to look up a real address.

Shub does not disclose a transaction utility. To have provided a transaction utility for Shub would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for having done such would have been to have provided common knowledge software to implement the electronic commerce transactions.

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action
